Info pack for “Let`s work for work” 15-23. 11. 2017 in Tryavna, Bulgaria

Project summary:

In the picturesque Renaissance town of Tryavna, situated in central Bulgaria, 25 young people from 5 different organizations and countries will join together for a common cause - the fight against one of the most recent and painful problems in Europe in recent years - youth unemployment.

The aim of this project is to present information which the young people need to start taking actions for their future career and make informed decisions about their future development, both personal and professional. Stimulating them to define the most common problems and challenges their peers and they themselves face in job search eventually will be a key factor in the fight against youth unemployment. All the partners are working on the field and over the years of work we realized one important thing, which is common to almost all young people - lack of specific and precise information on how to apply for a job, how to pass a job interview or what tools to use to collect the funds needed them to realize their ideas.

Due to the lack of these skills that lead to unemployment, they lose their motivation to pursue their dreams. And that most often leads to passive participation in the development of an active civil society. We believe that every young person should take in hand their own future, rather than wait for granted and complain, and we believe that it is young people with their personal example are people who can give impetus to a more active citizenship of young people interested in the events occurring around them.

The main objectives of the project are:

- To increase their knowledge in the field of applying for a job;
- To increase the number of tools they can use to: solve the problems in a creative way, they face; assess more accurately themselves and their personal and professional qualities; properly develop their entrepreneurial ideas; successfully to find the resources they need to implement their ideas;
- To increase their knowledge of the "Erasmus +" program and how they can benefit from it in their future personal and professional development;
- To stimulate their active citizenship;
- To wake up their curiosity and their desire to develop their own social entrepreneurial ideas.

General info about Bulgaria:

Bulgaria, officially the Republic of Bulgaria (Bulgarian: Република България, tr. Republika Bălgarija), is a country in southeastern Europe. It is bordered by Romania to the north, Serbia and Macedonia to the west, Greece and Turkey to the south, and the Black Sea to the east. With a territory of 110,994 square kilometers (42,855 sq mi), Bulgaria is Europe's 16th-largest country.

Organized prehistoric cultures began developing on Bulgarian lands during the Neolithic period. Its ancient history saw the presence of the Thracians and later the Persians, Greeks and Romans. The emergence of a unified Bulgarian state dates back to the establishment of the First Bulgarian Empire in 681 AD, which dominated most of the Balkans and functioned as a cultural hub for Slavs during the Middle Ages and it makes it the oldest country in Europe.

With the downfall of the Second Bulgarian Empire in 1396, its territories came under Ottoman rule for nearly five centuries. The Russo-Turkish War (1877–78) led to the formation of the Third Bulgarian State. The following years saw several conflicts with its neighbors, which prompted Bulgaria to align with Germany in both world wars. In 1946 it became a single-party socialist state as part of the Soviet-led Eastern Bloc.

In December 1989 the ruling Communist Party allowed multi-party elections, which subsequently led to Bulgaria's transition into a democracy and a market-based economy. Bulgaria's population of 7.4 million people is predominantly urbanized and mainly concentrated in the administrative centers of its 28 provinces. Most commercial and cultural activities are centered on the capital and largest city, Sofia.

The strongest sectors of the economy are heavy industry, power engineering, and agriculture, all of which rely on local natural resources. The country's current political structure dates to the adoption of a democratic constitution in 1991. Bulgaria is a unitary parliamentary republic with a high degree of political, administrative, and economic centralization.

It is a member of the European Union, NATO, and the Council of Europe; a founding state of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE); and has taken a seat at the UN Security Council three times.

General info about Tryavna:

Tryavna (Bulgarian: Трявна) is a town in central Bulgaria, situated in the north slopes of the Balkan range, on the Tryavna river valley, near Gabrovo. It is famous for its textile industry and typical National Revival architecture, featuring 140 cultural monuments, museums and expositions. Tryavna is the birthplace of Bulgarian writer Pencho Slaveykov and revolutionary Angel Kanchev.

The town is the administrative centre of the eponymous Tryavna Municipality. As of December 2009, it has a population of 9,831 inhabitants. The village was founded as early as the Thracian Era. However, the first documents of its existence date back to the 12th century. During Ottoman Bulgaria period locals defended the pass and enjoyed privileges for this reason.

Only Bulgarians lived in the town. During the period of Bulgarian National Revival, the town was heavily involved in the development of crafts. Houses from this period feature their own architectural design. The ground floors had irregular forms and housed craftsmen and traders. The upper floors featured wooden bow-windows, the roofs were covered with well arranged rocks.

The town square, named Capitan Diado Nikola, with the clock tower, dating from 1814, is among the landmarks. Another tourist attraction is the "kivgireniyat" bridge, built above the river behind the clock tower. One of the first secular schools in Bulgaria was built on Capitan Diado Nikola Square. Another symbol of Tryavna is the St. Archangel Mihael Church, situated in the town center and built in the late 12th century after Bulgarian tzar Asen defeated Byzantine emperor Isaac II.

The wood-carved iconostasis and the bishop's throne in the church are real masterpieces of the woodcarving in Tryavna. Next to the school, is the Raykov house with its ethnographic collection, which is the birthplace of the first Bulgarian chemist, Pencho Nikolov Raikov. Not far away from it is the museum-house of Angel Kanchev who was Vassil Levski's compatriot.

One of the most visited museums in Tryavna is the Daskalov house built in 1808. The museum features the famous wood carved suns. The house is a museum of woodcarving and icon painting art. The remarkable ceilings were made after a bet between two of the best masters of wood carving — Dimitar Oshanetsa and Ivan Bochukovetsa. The two masters worked hard for six months in the two largest rooms in the house without having a possibility to see each other's work.

The Petko and Pencho Slaveykov museum-house, situated in the old part of the town, features an exposition of the poetical works of the two authors. The son, Pencho, was nominated for the Nobel Prize but died before having a chance to win it. The Kalinchev house, also in the old part, has been transformed into an art gallery, offering the collection, donated by Totio Gybenski. The Museum of icon painting and woodcarving with its collection of over 160 original icons, painted by well-known masters, is housed in the Tsar's chapel at a distance of the town center. The unique Museum of Asian and African Art is housed in the old public bath, on the riverside. Tryavna is proud with its great samples of the woodcarving, icon painting and original architecture. Today the town is a preferable tourist spot, featuring modern hotels, private lodgings and villas, restaurants and mehanas (taverns).

There is also an Art school where successors of the old icon painters and woodcarvers master these crafts. The Voneshta voda village resort, famous for its healing mineral springs, is located 20 km. away from Tryavna. The Bulgarka Nature Park is located in the Starina Planina, south on the city. The town is well connected with the whole country thanks to its excellent road network and railway station. Besides Bulgarian National Revival figures, another native is former Bulgarian NBA player Georgi Glouchkov.

success of our work – to be part of a group from the Bulgarian Ministry of Culture and Education, developing a strategy for supporting the personal development of young people in the frame of the formal educational system. Also, we have a main role in the development of the youth strategy in our municipality as well as leading position in the Youth affairs commission in Tryavna.

We are an umbrella organization of the following institutions and organizations: Tryavna Rehabilitation and Social Integration Centre, “Kalina” kindergarten, “Svetlina” kindergarten, High School of Fine Arts – Tryavna, “Prof. P. N. Raykov” Elementary school, “P. R. Also, we are the founding NGO of the Network of Organizations “The Change is in You” – International. At the present moment we are opening 2 branches in Bulgaria (Sofia and Razlog), in Torino (Italy), Avignon (France), Riga (Latvia), Bucharest (Romania), Viljandi (Estonia) and in the nearest future in Croatia, Cyprus, Serbia, Germany and Hungary.

Our main goal is to create the bridge between formal, informal and non-formal education as well as the bridge between governmental institutions, business and society.

Our idea is via using non-formal methods and approaches to promote volunteering services and informal education as a tool for motivating youngsters to study harder and be more open-minded towards different cultures, religions, genders, nationalities, etc.

Education and leisure time:

- We often organize informational meetings with teachers and/or youngster to promote the mobility of young people around Europe, using the opportunities which the Erasmus+ program offers.
- We organize seminars with young people and through the methods of non-formal education we give information and discuss topics of interest for contemporary youth. Thus, we also manage to promote family values, social values and European values.
- A local initiative of ours is a theater where people with disabilities and people without disabilities play together and support each other.
- Another one is a sports festival in which kids will play in teams together with their parents. We want to get parents more involved into their children’s everyday activities. In cooperation with Gabrovo info centre we are organizing another sports event in late spring 2016.
- “Fairy tales outside” aims at taking children away of the computer and the new technologies and bringing them somewhere in nature, where they listen to or tell fairy tales. Both love to nature and love to reading are taught.
- Having in mind the importance of literacy about developing a good professional career and the sad statistics about the level of illiteracy in Bulgaria, on 8 September, the International Literacy Day, we realized an initiative under the motto: “Show that you are literate! Write in Cyrillic! Be Bulgarian”. Our volunteers, together with the kindergartens and the Social Rehabilitation and Integration Centre in Tryavna prepared 500 Bulgarian flags with the motto and gave them out as a present and a reminder to random citizens. They interviewed people in the streets and people in institutions about the level of education in Bulgaria, what the problems of education and illiteracy are what should be done, etc. We had big success in this campaign, because many people showed interest and great concern on this topic.

- In cooperation with the National High school of Fine Arts we are organizing a graffiti competition.
- In the field of graffiti, modern music and dancing we are working on a common project together with “Baby People”, UK.

Ecology:

- "Green School"- an initiative of ours, where all the lectures are outside the classroom and aimed to be more practical rather than theoretical.
- We often have some eco initiatives, such as cleaning eco paths, lakes and rivers, art from garbage, etc.
- We work together with some of the biggest environmental NGOs in Bulgaria in order to promote healthy lifestyle, to raise awareness and educate youngsters about environmental issues and how to reduce the usage of energy and decrease the level of pollution in our daily lives.

We collaborate with Tryavna Centre for Social Rehabilitation and Integration also in the social sphere and volunteering. We often take youngsters from the Centre, who are either disabled or in bad social condition, to participate in international projects. Our goal is to integrate them into society and prove that they are not different. We are proud that those kids have some amazing abilities which help them show their skills among others (One of our participants has impressive memory. He can remember the names and dates of births of more than 30 people within few minutes and even give details of famous people who born on the same date, what they were famous for and how and when they died).

The projects we have been working on are directed mainly to volunteers and include training courses with experienced Bulgarian and foreign educators, trainers and professionals. We are partners with a lot of European associations with great experience, but we are ready to welcome any other organizations with the same or similar activities and goals.

About the staff involved in this project:

Project coordinator

The project coordinator has completed a master degree in “English Philology and Pedagogy” at Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski, with an internship of three months at Wolverhampton University, UK. She also has a master degree in “Project Management” from St Cyril and St. Methodius University of Veliko Tarnovo and a qualification in "Management" from Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski. She has five years of experience as an English teacher at Britanica Ltd., Sofia (English language schools). Apart from some Erasmus+ projects, she has attended many seminars and trainings related to non-formal education. Certified as a teacher from Oxford University. Interested in alternative education. Certified Montessori educator. Connected to the topic, here are some projects she has attended:

We have a volunteer accountant with extensive experience in corporate accounting and control. In the association there are also several volunteers with different skills - lawyer, designer, artist and historian. We also have volunteers from the city - students. Some of them already have experience with international projects in partnership with the association or organized by the schools where they study. One of our most trustful volunteers is an EVS mentor, too.

Tips about traveling in Bulgaria and some useful phrases:

- Busses in Bulgaria are faster and better than the trains. For example:
 - Bus ticket from Sofia to Tryavna is 19 lv. (10 Euro) and it takes ~3.5 hours. By train is going to cost a bit cheaper, but will take ~6 hours.
 - There is no straight bus from Tryavna to Varna, so with the changes will cost ~20 lv. And 4-5 hours, but by train – 15 lv. and more or less the same time.
- Traveling around Bulgaria is cheap anyway and more the point – Tryavna is in the middle of the country, so to any border the distance is not more than 300 km.
- Hitch-hiking in Bulgaria is not a popular way of traveling, BUT it is extremely easy to get a ride. Waiting usually.

The easiest way to get a ride and/or help from a Bulgarian is to know some of those phrases and words, because in that way you are showing great respect to him/her, by even saying 3 words in his mother tongue:
